

Light Based Therapies Short Course

CPUT Wellness Sciences has a pleasure to introduce a short course on Lasers and Lights. The purpose of this short course is to enhance the knowledge and skill of beauty therapist to effectively and competently perform laser and light based therapies within a skin care clinic or aesthetic practice.

The course will consist of a theoretical and practical component which will be assessed for competency. On completion of the course, a Certificate in Light Based Therapies will be awarded.

Course details:

Venue: Cape Town Campus: Science Building: Somatology department, Room 4.13

Duration: 20 days (Every Tuesday Second semester 2017)

Cost: R6500

Time: 9am-4 pm

Pre-requisite: 3 year National Diploma in skin care or equivalent

Main concepts in this module:

- Laser Physics and Photobiology
- Laser safety
- Radiation tissue interactions
- Legal issues
- Laser therapy in practice

After completing this module you should be able to:

- Design IPL, LED, LLLT and laser treatment programs for all skin types
- Describe and apply the treatment parameters for all skin types
- Design pre and post care treatments
- Apply various safety control measures
- Explain the necessity for indemnity forms
- Equipment care

For more information

Please contact us at the following link: <https://www.cput.ac.za/academic/shortcourses/apply>

Enquiries relating to the course content

Please contact:

Mrs N Mpofana

(021)460 3189